FORVER IN OUR HEARTS

When you hear a song you know she'd love,
Or see the stars that shine above,
When kindness comes without a show,
You'll find a little piece of Kel you know.

When music plays, both fierce and strong,
And you can see her headbanging along,
When a cat curls close beside your feet,
Or morning light falls soft and sweet.

When forests open to the sky,
And birds above you wander by,
When all around is wild and free,
Remember Kel in all you see.

She'll live within the stories told,
In photographs that we will hold,
In every laugh, in every song,
In all the places she belongs.

For love does not just disappear
Because the one we love's not here.
It settles softly into place,
In every heart that knew her face.

And though we wish with all our hearts
That we had never had to part,
A life so loved is never gone—
In those who love her, she lives on.

Thank you for sharing in our celebration of Kelly's life.
Our happy memories with her will be treasured always.

There are no words big enough for how much she was loved, or for the space that has been left behind. Though our hearts ache, we take comfort in knowing she is now at peace.

Kelly carried the words "The good man has nothing to fear" through her life.

Perhaps there could be no more fitting reminder of a life lived with honesty, courage and a good heart. Kelly was caring, funny, honest and cheeky. She was fiercely loyal, deeply thoughtful, just, and completely herself. Her laugh made us all laugh. She challenged us, made us think, and loved the people and animals in her life fiercely.

Kelly touched the lives of so many and left a legacy of love and warmth that will remain with us forever. We will never forget the many lessons we learned from her, or the joy and love she brought into our lives. She will live on in the quiet corners of our hearts, and through all the little moments when we wish she was there.

With love,

James, Jill, Trevor, Alana, Petter
